The Voice of Older People

If you're aged 50 or over, join us and share your views by taking part in occasional surveys and focus groups.

By taking part, you'll help us to:

Understand

what matters to you in day-to-day life and in your community

Help

ensure older people's voices are reflected in local decisions

Highlight

what's working well and what needs improvement

Influence

public services and organisations to better meet the needs of older people Together we can make Gloucestershire a place where older people's voices are truly amplified, valued and respected.
